City- & Landmarket with focus herbs

🕒 Saturday 8:00 o'clock

On May 17, we will also be inviting experts on the subject of herbs and spices.

Description

Every week, the town center of Bludenz's old town is populated by green and white market stalls. Here, cheerful market traders present their abundant fresh produce from the region, pick the organic goods with love and sensitivity in baskets and crates and invite visitors to taste them.

On May 17, we will also be inviting experts on the subject of herbs and spices. The small oasis of indulgence consisting of 4-5 stands will show lots of interesting and inspiring things for the kitchen and the senses.
