

Gianni Tbay (The blues against youth) - Country blues in Reinform

Raw, honest and full of energy: Gianni TBAY, alias The Blues Against Youth, shakes the stage with guitar, vocals, hi-hat and bass drum - all by himself!

Description

The musician from Rome mixes country blues, outlaw country and dirty garage blues vibes to create an unmistakable sound. Since 2009, he has released six albums, toured across Europe, the UK and the USA and rocked festivals such as Binic Folk Festival and London Blues Festival. He has performed on stage with the likes of Watermelon Slim, CW Stoneking and Bob Log III. His latest album "As The Tide Gets High And Low" (2022) has received rave reviews from the international press. After a long anniversary tour in 2023/24, he returned in 2024 with the single "Learn This Right" - as a harbinger of his new album 2025. If you like handmade, uncompromising blues, you shouldn't miss this evening!
