In the footsteps of Habakuk - The House of Habakuk invites you on a nostalgic journey.

The exhibition presents the puppets of Arminio Rothstein, also known as "Clown Habakuk", who influenced children in the 70s and 80s.

Arminio Rothstein, better known as Clown Habakuk, is a legend in the world of puppetry. With his unforgettable characters such as Kasperl, Tintifax, Goose Mimi, Toby & Tobias and Kreisky & Co, he shaped the childhoods of many people in Austria in the 70s and 80s. Rothstein not only designed and built the puppets, but also wrote the scripts and appeared in many of his TV shows himself.

The museum is only open on request at info@habakuk.at, www.habakuk.at Live performances at Haus Habakuk will be announced in good time. www.habakuk.at
