Tour description

Beautiful circular trail above Bludenz to the "Hellwald" acustic rest stop, which provides playful sound entertainment for young and old.

This circular trail starts at the Val Blu leisure pool in Bludenz. Directly there, a hiking trail leads up to Montikel. At Montikel, follow the panorama path always in the direction of Rungelin. At the fork in the road above the "Halde" district, continue hiking in the direction of Rungelin/Hellwald or Braz. The "Hellwald" sound station is located at the fork in the path. Here the hiking trail that leads from Rungelin to Gasünd and continues to Radin meets the hiking trail that comes from the Halde. After a leisurely rest, the trail continues downhill across a meadow towards Rungelin. In Rungelin, the path branches off onto the slag heap path (road) and then leads back to the starting point, the Val Blu leisure pool.
