Cross-country ski trail "Olympia" | Bürserberg

EASY | ROUND TRIP

Tour description

Style: Classic / Skating on 80 % of the trail

Discover the cross-country skiing paradise on the Tschengla high plateau with the generously designed Olympic cross-country trail. This circuit was newly created as part of the EYOF 2015, the European Youth Olympic Festival, which was held jointly by the countries of Vorarlberg and Liechtenstein in January 2015.

From the Tschengla hikers' car park, a short walk uphill to the start of the Olympic cross-country ski trail. The circular route leads past Alpe Rona towards Plandedon, back towards Alpe Rona and then in several loops over the Tschengla high plateau. Accompanied by fabulous views of the surrounding valleys and mountains.

Changing facilities: There are no changing rooms on site.
Current status: You can find this in the daily updated trail report.
