Meersburg Castle - rises high above Lake Constance.

Detailed description

Meersburg castle

Meersburg Castle, also Old Castle, in Meersburg at Lake Constance is considered according to a legend by its construction in the 7th century as the oldest inhabited castle in Germany. Their striking view makes it a landmark of the region.

Open to the public since the end of the 19th century, it is one of the main attractions, and the visit at the museum will be an unforgettable experience. More than 30 furnished rooms, including the prison, the torture chamber and treasure chamber in the tower, gives a fascinating insight into times long past.
