Innsbruck in Tyrol - The capital city of the province Tyrol has a lot of hotspots for its guests

Detailed description

Innsbruck in Tyrol - The capital city of the province Tyrol

Far beyond the borders is Innsbruck, the capital of the state of Tyrol an well-known as twice stage of the winter Olympic games. Its former significance as the imperial residence can still be seen today in the houses of the magnificent old town. The city's landmark - the "Goldene Dach" made from fire-gilded copper shingles - shimmers in all its glory. Further sights are the imperial Hofburg palace, the baroque cathedral and also the pretty Maria-Theresien-Straße, Innsbruck's shopping street.
