Tour description

Beautiful, leisurely ascending winter hiking trail from Dalaas to Wald am Arlberg through the wintry Radona forest.

From the Kristbergsaal Dalaas, start on the signposted winter hiking trail to the right of the Alfenz river into the valley. At the Sonnenhalb parcel, cross the stream and continue along the signposted winter hiking trail towards Wald am Arlberg. The trail leads past the houses in Sonnenhalb, further through the romantic snow-covered Radonawald. After the Radonatobel, the trail continues left to the Mariengrotte, from here over the Schloßbühel and Kendel in Außerwald towards Innerwald. Cosy benches along the way invite you to linger in the sun. Cross the Annabach, then turn right onto the Obere Gasse municipal road, over the Stelzitobel and past the fire station to Innerwald. This tour ends in Innerwald at the Spullersee Inn. The way back is by bus to Dalaas or alternatively on foot via the same path or via the winter hiking trail along the Alfenz.
