Stage Tour

Tour description

Stage 1 of the scenic high-altitude hike in the Lechquellengebirge, featuring a stay at an alpine hut in one of Vorarlberg’s most beautiful spots: Lake Spullersee.

The hike begins in the forest on the Arlberg and follows the Spreubachtobel valley, past rushing streams and through shady woods. The trail climbs steadily uphill, offering frequent beautiful views of the Klostertal valley. After about 2–3 hours of hiking, you’ll reach Spullersee—a high-alpine reservoir and popular photo spot. From the lake, the route continues along well-marked trails to the Ravensburger Hütte, where you can wind down the day in comfort. On the sun terrace, you can enjoy the panoramic view of the Spullersee and regional hut classics.

Hiking time: approx. 4–5 hours

Stops and overnight stays: Ravensburger Hütte

Note: The times listed are approximate. Depending on the weather or other factors, the walking time may be shorter or longer.
