Hochgerach 1,985 m | Thüringerberg

HARD | PANORAMIC | SUMMIT TOUR | RIDGE | ROUND TRIP

Tour description

The Hochgerach is the second highest mountain of the Walserkamm and a worthwhile peak.

From the center of Thüringerberg, the trail leads over the Außerberg and the Kapiescha district up to the Inner Alpila Alpe. From here it is still about 400 m of ascent to the summit of Hochgerach. A head for heights and surefootedness are required for the ascent of the summit. The descent leads the first part over the same path and then over the Äußere Alpila Alpe and the Gampelin Alpe. Via the Außerberg back to the starting point in Thüringerberg.

Equipment

Ankle-high hiking boots with treaded soles, sun and rain protection, snack, filled water bottle, first aid kit and hiking poles are recommended. Mobile phone in case of emergency.

Tips

This tour requires a head for heights and surefootedness, but the mountain panorama is breathtaking.

The hike up the Hochgerach can also be started from the mountain station of the Schnifis cable car and is then correspondingly shorter.
